NUMBER 40

Prince Rupert 887.

This handsome premium stallion will make the season, of 1908 at the stables of R. Bruce Young's Walnut Grove Stock Farm, 1½ miles North of Mt. Sterling, Ky., at ### $25.00 to Insure a Living Foal.

Let retained on all colts until season money is paid.

PRINCE RUPERT 887 is the only full brother to the famous deceased sire Chester Dare 10, and the only living horse combining the blood of Black Squirrel 38 and Nannie Garrett 472. You know what this blood did when transmitted through the loins of Chester Dare. Prince Rupert is the superior of his illustrious brother as an individual and his equal as a sire. At the Blue Grass Fair of 1907 he was at the head of the winning herd, stallion and four mares, defeating the best and finest of the State produced. At the same fair for foals of 1906 his daughter, Princess, who won everything in front of her as a suckling, was first.

PRINCE RUPERT is a beautiful mahogany bay, full 15½ hands high, and has great natural style, combined with as good and true action as you could wish to see. For five generations on his side Prince Rupert traces to show horses of the first water, and his dam, Nannie Garrett 472, produced five famous show animals; his 2d dam, Nannie, was shown more than twenty times in the model ring, and was never defeated. Nannie Garrett was by Dave Aikin 775 (the sire of the dam of Highland Denmark), and he was out of the dam of the noted Peavine 85.

If you want a show horse, breed to one that is not only a show horse himself, but is backed by generations of show blood.

LEGISLATIVE GRAFT WILL BE PROBED.

Judge Stout Tells Grand Jury
to Inquire Into Alleged Bribery.

The investigation of charges of alleged bribery in connection with the recent Legislature is part of the members of the Franklin county grand jury, "according to the charge delivered to that body by Circuit Judge R. L. Stout, of Franklin county."

Judge Stout told the members of the jury that it was a matter of general report that members of the General Assembly had failed to follow the instructions and wishes of the constituents by whom they were elected, and that the report included charges of corruption or bribery of the members, and urged them to sift the reports and charges to the bottom.

Wants Trust and Riders Alike
Indicted, if Guilty.

Judge Benton, of Winchester, said to the grand jury: "Trusts and night riders alike are guilty, and if so found they must be punished."

He called the attention of the panel to the recent speech of Gov. Willson, in which the executive declared that the Commonwealth Attorneys of Kentucky had upon them the responsibility of punishing those responsible for the outrages, and of proceeding against the trust. He instructed the jury to bring in indictments against the guilty.

Want No Other.

N. G. McDonald, merchant, Avon, Ky., says: "I handle several stock foods and have remedies but none like the Bourbon Hog Cholera Remedy. An epidemic of cholera broke out in this locality and it cured every case in which it was used." Sold by W. S. Lloyd.

Entitled Governor Willson.

Governor Hughes gave a dinner Wednesday night of last week at the executive mansion at Albany, N. Y., to Governor Augustus E. Willson, of Kentucky, who was in Albany on business relative to a case before the Court of Appeals.

Accidents will happen, but the best regulated families keep Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil for such emergencies. It subdues the pain and heals the hurts. 38-3t

May 2nd Senator-elect Bradley and Kentucky's four Republican Congressmen will be entertained by the Republican Club of Washington, D. C.

Conditions Worse Than at Any Time During War.

Conditions in Kentucky are worse than at any time during the Civil war, according to Circuit Judge Watts Parker. He delivered a strong charge to the Fayette grand jury and declared that even the small outrages in the county, such as the poisoning of the cattle of R. M. Squires and the burning of a barnful of horses, must be closely investigated as if human life had been sacrificed.

"We are talked about all over the United States," said Judge Parker, one of the most noted, yet conservative, jurists in the State. "Conditions are deplorable, and when a man or a community feels insecure the law should defend him, though he has the personal right of self defense.

"Many men in Kentucky today go to bed at night and may be submitted to indignities and tortures before morning for something which, in the eyes of the law, is not a misdemeanor even."

ANÆMIA OR POOR BLOOD

Don't Wait Too Long to Correct It--As it Often Leads to Something Worse.

Anæmia is a defective state of the blood in which there is a lack either in quantity or quality of the little red corpuscles.

It may result from any cause that serve to deplete the general system and is recognized by a pale and haggard face--colorless lips, poor circulation and short breath, and the system is at such a low ebb that more serious diseases are easily contracted.

Anæmic people should eat plenty of fruit, eggs, milk, meat, vegetables, good butter and cream and whole wheat bread, and as for a medicine nothing excels our delicious cod liver preparation, Vinol, which is made by a scientific, extractive and concentrating process from fresh cod's livers, combining with peptone-of-iron, which is a needful constituent for the blood, all the medicinal, healing, body-building elements of cod liver oil, but no oil. Vinol is not a patent medicine, you know what are you taking as all it contains is named on the label.

Any anæmic or run-down person in Mt. Sterling who will follow the above suggestions is sure to be restored to health and strength in a short time. We will return your money if Vinol fails to give satisfaction.

Wm. S. Lloyd, Druggist.

Hard to Catch.

Opinions of The Saloon Business.

Challenge from W. S. Lloyd.

W. S. Lloyd is seeking the worst case of dyspepsia or constipation in Mt. Sterling or vicinity to test Dr. Howard's new specific for the cure of those diseases.

So confident is he that this remarkable medicine will effect a lasting cure within a short time, that he offers to refund the money should it not be successful.

In order to secure the quietest possible introduction W. S. Lloyd will sell a regular fifty cent package of this medicine at half price, 25 cents.

This specific of Dr. Howard's will cure sick headache, dizzy feelings, constipation, dyspepsia and all forms of malady and liver trouble. It does not simply give relief for a time; it makes permanent and complete cures.

Will regulate the bowels, tone up the whole intestinal tract, give you an appetite, make food to good and digest well, and increase vigor.

Take advantage of W. S. Lloyd's challenge and secure a bottle of Dr. Howard's specific half price, with his personal guarantee to refund your money if it does not help you.

Remarkable Sale of Silk Petticoats $5.85 REGULAR $8.00 VALUES--SPECIAL AT - -

These Petticoats come from one of the best manufacturers in the trade, and represent a special purchase.

They are made of finest grade rustling Taffeta Silk of the same quality as that used in our regular $10.00 Skirts.

In make, finish, fit and style they are the full equal of the best $8.00 Petticoats you ever saw.

At $5.85 They are Absolutely Matchless Values.

The Petticoats are made with an extra wide dust ruffle under a 9-inch sectional ruffle. They come in brown, black, navy and all new shades.

A LABEL GUARANTEEING ITS WEAR IS ATTACHED TO EACH OF THESE GARMENTS.

The bargain is the right sort—it represents a substantial price saving on garments about the full value of which at regular prices there can be no question.

J. W. HEDDEN, Editors and Publishers
G. W. TRIMBLE,

If a 1908 crop of tobacco is off,
what will become of the worms?

Business in Mt. Sterling is beginning to look good to the merchants who advertise.

In his instruction to the grand jury Judge A. W. Young did not mince words. The grand jury understand him thoroughly and healthful results are looked for.

The "night riders" are to be disturbers of the past. Law overridden and crushed to earth is through the officials asserting its powers, and criminals are beginning to tremble.

A good man and correct man as well has said do not magnify your difficulties, rather minimize. If our people would apply such a rule in their lives, Kentucky
would have nearer the name deserved than what she bears.

Some time near the beginning of the tobacco troubles the ADVOCATE predicted that grief would come to the violators of law. It has started at Murray. The night riders used the real lash, but now tables have turned and they are in the clutches of the law.

Gov. Wilson did the elegant welcoming Gov. John A. Johnson, of Minnesota, to Kentucky. The Jefferson Day banquet was an elaborate affair. Gov. Johnson has many friends in Kentucky, and should be nominated in Denver
for the Presidency he would receive Kentucky's solid vote.

Punch & Graves will extend the show windows of their building on Maysville street, making that side of the building almost a solid show window. Punch & Graves' building, with this improvement, will be one of the most attractive in the city. These men of pluck and push deserve the enormous trade
they now enjoy.

Taft met with a hearty welcome in Kentucky, and the signs of the times are he will walk away with the political plum. Bradley will continue to work for Fairbanks
and has said Taft cannot be elected.
The negroes are out against Taft with much fierceness and some leaders have gone so far as to declare they will not vote for him if nominated, but they will.

Big sale of shoes last Saturday at Walsh Bros., following the announcement that they would sell 255 pairs of $3.50 shoes for $2.75
the pair Saturday and Saturday only. Walsh Bros. store was crowded all day by eager shoe
hunters, who know the way Walsh Bros. do business. For the coming Saturday Walsh Bros. are offering all $18 Suits for $15. This should prove a great drawing card
for the house.

Circuit Court

Met on Monday. Judge Young ordered special examination into sounding of anonymous letters and attempted burning of barn. Offenders before him will be justly but vigorously dealt with. He intimated that newspapers should carefully guard their utterances in times of interest. The court proceeded at once to trial of cases.

Annual Bible School Convocation.

The Bible Schools of the Christian Churches in the Eighth District, composed of the counties of Bourbon, Bath, Clark, Harrison, Montgomery and Nicholas, will hold their annual convention in Millersburg on Friday, April 24th.
The first session will be a joint one with the C. W. B. M. on Thursday evening, April 23rd.

The convention will close at 4 p.m.
Friday. A splendid program, containing the names of many able speakers, is ready for the printer.

Let every school send at least one representative besides the Superintendent. Many schools are near enough to send several.

Send, at once, a full report of your school work during the year to Bruce W. Trimble, Mt. Sterling.

The Church at Millersburg is planning for a big convention.
Don't disappoint them. Those who can go will send their names
immediately to Mrs. Oscar Johnson, Millersburg.

Come, Bible School workers,
and get information, inspiration
and enthusiasm.

Dr. T. B. Smith, manufacturer of the famous Smith Liniment made us a visit Thursday. He had been to Jackson, Ky., where he has cured a number of persons suffering with consumption with his great lung medicine, "Syrup of Black Cohosh Compound." He showed us Day Bros.' order for 4 gallons—4 more new cases. The success of this medicine is wonderful.

At Prestonsburg we crossed the new bridge, finished since our last visit. It cost about $22,000 and will be a great money maker. A 3¢ toll for a footman is preferable to swimming. The ferry now charges one cent; heretofore the price was five. The bridge belongs to Fon Rogers, cashier of bank at Pikeville; May & May, at Prestonsburg, and a few others.

The Bank Josephine, so long in the little frame building, will soon occupy its new, large, up-to-date stone and brick building.

A representative from the State Agricultural Department was, with a drag and four mules, showing the citizens how to work the street.
This town, like Pikeville, has "awfully streets"—in spots. The progressive spirit is on, and in due time they will come out of the mine.

PAINTSVILLE.

That government road from the depot to town (about 14 miles) is a great success. The brick streets will receive their spring cleaning in a few days. Main street is only partially bricked—as far as M. E.
Church (north, I think) in upper part of town. The contrast "before and after taking" is a sight.

The luxury is expensive but evidently worth the price. Paintsville is the best bricked-street small town
we remember to have ever seen.
If any person thinks it is a slouch,
he will see a new light if he goes
there.

Green Briar Stock Farm.

The stock at Green Briar Stock Farm advertised in this paper will be found suitable to many of our readers in need of good stock.

The Victor is a horse of fine
form, wonderful bone and substance;
the necessary weight always demanded by the buyer of either Saddle or Harness horses.
His disposition is perfect, and he has as much speed at rack and trot
as any stallion at double his fee.
Four to six stud mares send mares to this horse each season, one colt often being good enough to send several other mares.

As a mule Jack Bramlett possibly leads any Jack in the country for high-priced mules. Two-thirds of his colts bearing mares is worthy of note.

Romance and Reality.

"Let the youngsters have the romance—an' it'll be all the better for 'em if they git purty good dose on it; but don't hide from 'em the fact that there's somethin' in the shape of trouble a-waitin' for 'em up the road," said Mr. Billy Sanders. "Not big trouble, tootsy shore, but just big enough to make 'em stick close together. It ain't no use to try to rub out the fact that life is what it is. It's full of rough places, an' thar are times when you have to leave the big road an' take a short cut through the bamboo briars for to keep from slippin' in a mud-hole. The briars hurt, but the mud-hole might smifflie you. It ain't no use to do den't trouble is season in." I never know'd it to hurt anybody but the weak-minded, the wilful, an' them that was born to the purple."—Joel Chandler Harris in Uncle Remus's Magazine.

"The liquor traffic has caused more misery than war, pestilence and famine combined."—Gladstone

New Jailers Law.

Governor Willson approved Senate bill No. 16, which provides that the jailer of each county not having a population of 50,000 or more shall be superintendent of the court house and other public buildings and that the Fiscal Court of each said counties shall annually appropriate a sum sufficient for the care and maintenance of the same, including the jailer's residence, if owned by the county. The act does not apply to counties having circuit courts of continuous session or containing cities of the second class.

Wiltshire's Magazine says socialism proposes to destroy belief in religion, also the desire to profess religion after the belief is gone. This is rank infidelity. We see no antagonism between the so-called Christian socialist papers and the anti-Christian. One of the great wants of Socialists is that they may be fed without work. "Earn your bread by the sweat of your face," says the Bible.

Mrs. Augusta Whittington dropped dead at Kuttawa while watching a fire which destroyed a livery stable and several small buildings. The fire resulted in a loss of about $4,000 and was accidental.

Cleanliness Next to Godliness

Clean streets and alleys, clean back yards, clean public grounds and buildings with clean stores, up the sum total of civic cleanliness from a physical stand-point. And all this is possible without much cost, but consideration will be required to make every one see the need of it. And yet what is more attractive than cleanliness in a town!—Central Record,

"A treat" meant taking too much.

and this was so successfully accomplished that "there was one man found dead, supposed to be choked with punch."—Country Life.

ALL USED WOODEN TRENDERS

Substitutes for Crockery Ware Now Two Hundred Years Ago.

Our mothers may like to remember how easily we used to live in history the absence of cheap crockery kept the wooden trencher in use. In the eighteenth century, silver in the dining room and pewter below stairs were used for all dinner table use in large and wealthy families.

But that the number of animal plates and dishes was insufficient to meet the requirements of extraordinary occasions is seen in a description of a dinner given by Lord Merton to his tenants in 1712.

In Woodhouse, the famous tales place in which we find the "it is out of the way thing," the people are to dine upon wooden dishes, they eat down wood on purpose to make them of.

One of the company describes the meal as follows: "The Lord Steward of the table, Lord Lovell's nephew, Mr. Wimberley castle."

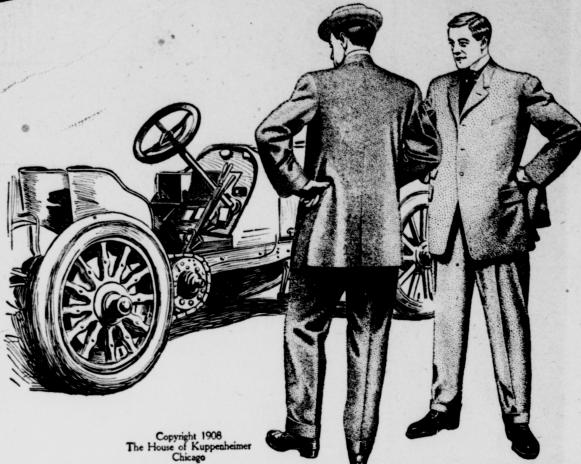

"There was in the praller hall six tables made of deals with benches, such as in the time of King Richard III. All four of them should be about people, the other two sometimes taking the number, the tables being deal.

"Our dishes stood single, the table allowing no more; first dish, result course; 2nd, mackerel; 3rd, venison pasty; 4th, cold beetle roast; 5th, first course; 6th, 7th, 8th, 9th, 10th, 11th, 12th, # STER CLOTHES

Men of to-day are much impressed with the importance of personal appearance. Our Clothing Department, we feel confident, is superior to any in Eastern Kentucky. Our clothing is contained in cabinets, each suit hung separately, thus assuring proper shoulder effect and grace of contour. In truth, the garments may be seen precisely as they left the hands of skilled craftsmen without need of pressing or "whipping into shape."

Our new models in "ready-for-service" suits are products from which reflect with unerring fidelity the newest styles, both in cut and color. If you will be counted among the smartly dressed men of this locality, an inspection of our stock is essential.

"THE HOUSE OF KUPPENHEIMER,"

MISS LLOYD'S SPEECH.

People of Louisville: I am wholly unaccustomed to public speech. Hitherto when I wanted a real good speech made, I called upon Brother Powell to make it; and you know he made it well; but Mr. Powell spoke some time this evening and did not say something that I believe needs to be said. I have never written a line for publication. I have never spoken a word off the rostrum of my schoolroom that I did not believe to be needed, and that is my apology for speaking to you this evening.

I come from the White Burley district, from the county in which the White Burley tobacco was first grown. I believe I know something about these people. I believe I know something about the men in the Burley Tobacco Association. I know very little about the Society of Equity. I don't remember that I ever heard the word until some time about last November. I have never been a newspaper reader. I have been a school teacher and I didn't know much about that sort of thing. But I do know something of the sentiment of the people in Central Kentucky; and, people of Louisville, they suspect you. If you will take them into your confidence, if you will be frank with them, if you will give them the credit for the good there is in them, they will join hands with you and support you loyally. (Applause). But all over this country, you know, there is suspicion of corporations, and it is abroad in the land, and they say the State government is against us, the city press is against us, and we can not get our cause heard. Now that is the reason that you have driven the fellow in brown jeans with his trousers in the top of his boots, to use brute force.

A voice—Law and order shall prevail.

Mrs. Lloyd—I think law and order shall prevail in Kentucky, and it will prevail when you reach the hearts and consciences of the people, and they are willing to be so reached. I hear a man the other day say with a real quiver in his voice—he is a deacon in a church which Mr. Powell has served—that we do not any more elect a man to office than he sells us out.

I know the city press has not done us justice. I tried to get into the city press, and nothing I have to say and nothing that any of my people have to say is particularly interesting. They don't care to hear it. Mr. Powell admitted to me this morning at breakfast he didn't know anything about the merits of this issue. Then how in the world is Mr. Powell going to give you very good advice about what to do in the premises? Mr. Powell is in the position of prescribing for a disease that he does not know what the disease is. He says if you find yourself in a corner and you can not get out by the regular processes of law and order, cut your way out. Well, I expect that some of the fellows in brown jeans just argue precisely that way. I do not believe I ever saw a night rider. I am absolutely certain I never talked with a night rider, but I tell you what a good man said to me. He said if this sort of thing keeps on and some remedy is not brought to bear night riding is not begun yet. He was close enough to me to make me just start a bit, and I said: "What makes you keep at it?" He said: "I know by the way I feel."

As soon as Newman introduced the resolution in the Legislature providing that the Legislature should find out what was the matter, Judge Burnam said he knew what was the matter; that there was a tobacco trust formed, and the Tobacco Trust had the growers by the nape of the neck, and that there was a law on the statute books to prosecute trusts, and there wasn't any need for any more legislation or any investigation. Judge O'Rear said that the Tobacco Trust was the first criminal, and that it was equally responsible with the night rider. Judge Barker told you the same thing, and still you say you are not going to argue the question on its merits; you are not going to disaffected or get the germs of the disease out of the way; you are just going to get some irritant on the boil and allow the poison to stay in the blood and refuse to give a blood purifier.

You want to pass a bill, some of you, to gather up these fellows in brown jeans and bring them down here to try them before a Louisville jury, although you have to make a matter of State record such offenses as would convict the American Tobacco Company of being a trust. And Judge Burnam offered what he called a substitute to the McChord bill. Judge Burnam's idea of a substitute reminds me of what a certain woman said to her maid. Madam said:

"We must have our meals on time and you must have them ready. I am going to give you a clock." The servant replied: "I would rather have a clothes wringer." So we asked for a clock and Judge Burnam offered us a clothes wringer for a substitute.

I do not want to have to go back to Central Kentucky and when they ask me, "What did they do down there at that meeting?" Did they take any notice of our rights?" "No; they just said you didn't have anything to do with it; they were going to catch that fellow and put him in the penitentiary, and there wasn't anything coming to you anyhow, and just sit down and keep still." I will tell you, those farmers will clinch their teeth a little tighter, and Christian people of Louisville, you are making night riders out of those good men. I wouldn't tell you if I didn't believe it. I believe it with all my heart. I have tried to do my duty as a Christian, as a teacher and as a member of the church and a worker in the church organizations, and I will tell you I have no conviction any deeper than if the city culprit and the city press and the State administration had recognized the right of those tobacco growers there never would have been a crime committed in the Blue Grass region. I didn't think it would come. When I first heard of those things over there in the dark belt of the Western part of the State I said to my mother, "That is what comes of atmosphere." I said: "They have had nine strikes over there and have had those strikes in their minds when these raids come up." And I never was more surprised in my life than when this thing broke out in the Blue Grass region.

One of the speakers asked the question, "Am I my brother's keeper?" I know by the way I feel." Suppose a corporation in New York with five hundred million dollars walks up to a farmer out in the tobacco district and offers him five cents for the crop, and the man answers, "Why, it costs me seven cents," and the agent of the trust says, "Well, that is all I will give," and walks away and leaves him humiliated; and walks up to all those poor farmers, walks up to gentlemen and brow-beats them and humiliates them and robes them, men, the latches of whose shoes they are not worthy to stoop down and loosen. Is the American Tobacco Company an illegal trust doing business against the United States?

A voice—Don't you believe if the anti-trust law was enforced that there wouldn't be crime in Kentucky? If Judge Humphrey and the courts and the law would enforce the anti-trust law, would there be any crime in Kentucky?

Miss Lloyd—If they will pass the McChord bill they will stop it.

A voice—I rise to a point of order. Both order. They are neither one of them speaking upon the question before the house.

Miss Lloyd—I have not prepared a speech. I have very little more to say, but I ask the Christian people in this audience to recognize the Christian pulse and heart-beat of the people in Central Kentucky in the Burley Tobacco Society and I ask you to help them.

"We must have our meals on time and you must have them ready. I am going to give you a clock."

The servant replied: "I would rather have a clothes wringer."

So we asked for a clock and Judge Burnam offered us a clothes wringer for a substitute.
